

SUMMER RECITAL SERIES 2017
Saturday Afternoons at 4 pm
Admission By Donation

Once again this summer, the Cathedral presents hour-long programs in wide variety, featuring up-and-coming emerging talents alongside established artists, including some of the city's most distinguished teachers and orchestral musicians.

Saturday, July 8: Felipe Jang, piano	This eight-year-old local prodigy blew us away when he first performed in the Cathedral last fall. He returns to play works by Mozart, Tchaikovsky, Debussy and more.
Saturday, July 15: Robert & Ann Fraser with Michael Jarvis, organ	This husband-and-wife duo are well-known for their intriguing programs of Baroque violin and trombone music – on this occasion, from early 17 th Century Italy.
Saturday, July 22: David Michaux and Friends	Back by popular demand! The Victoria Symphony trumpeter brings together wind and string colleagues for attractive, seldom-heard works by Alfredo Casella and Bohuslav Martinů.
Saturday, July 29: Robert Dukarm, organ	Robert is a multi-talented Victoria musician – from jazz violinist to church organist. His eclectic program for us includes Bach, Buxtehude, Couperin, Parry and Hindemith.
Saturday, August 5: Wisteria String Quartet plays Haydn & more	The four young women of the Wisteria Quartet all study at U Vic with the Lafayette String Quartet, and believe that “chamber music is a conversation between friends.”
Saturday, August 12: Eve Daniell, soprano Rykie Avenant, piano	Eve and Rykie both have roots in the Cowichan Valley, though Eve now lives and works in London, England. Songs by Clara Schumann, Jean Coulthard, Dvorak, etc.
Saturday, August 19: The MacLeod Family with Charlotte Hale, piano	VS Principal Clarinet Keith MacLeod, his violist wife Jennifer, and their soprano daughter Heather return to offer us a widely varied program of songs and trios.
Saturday, August 26: Adam Djach, tenor Braden Young, piano	Two talented young Victoria musicians present Gerald Finzi's song cycle A Young Man's Exhortation , to poems of Thomas Hardy, plus music of Bach, Mozart, Mendelssohn and Chopin.

911 QUADRA AT ROCKLAND
 250.383.2714
www.christchurchcathedral.bc.ca