

The Victoria Children's Choir

The Victoria Children's Choir is considered to be one of the top choral and music organizations in the city, and is highly respected for its consistent professional level of performing music throughout the Concert Season.

Under the instruction of Founder and Artistic Director, Madeleine Humer, and an expert music team, the Victoria Children's Choir offers outstanding music education to more than 115 youth throughout Greater Victoria. Great emphasis is given to delivering programs in a unique, supportive and happy social environment, enabling each young singer to develop their skills to the best of their ability. As a testament to its reputation and skill, the Choir is regularly invited to collaborate with renowned international and local musicians, including the Victoria Symphony, Pacific Opera Victoria, Fretwork and the Pacific Baroque Festival.
